A peer noted:

It has been almost a year since the School of Business changed the leadership structure. We have department chairs who were deeply committed to their respective programs when they were program directors. These individuals were proactive in seeking opportunities to make their programs competitive in the market place as well as attempting to create a niche in territories that our competition arrived before us.

As department chairs, they have continued their work of excellent, especially in the external market and communities. They understand the concept of "leading forward" and securing a place in our New Norm.

We appreciate your hard work and dedication to live out our Core Values, to serve students, and support University colleagues. A copy of this memo will be retained in your personnel file.

Sincerely,

Dr. Vernon C. Smith
